The beautiful clothes you saw in your dream would suggest that you will be getting mre wealth and, perhaps, the respect of someone. If you aren't already married, you may be getting a proposal, or getting engaged or married. Going to a wedding symbolises some kind of happiness coming your way, so congratulations!

You wrote:

Br Irshad Sait,

Assalamu Alaikum. Thanks v. much for your comments regarding Taweez. The amulets the Prophet [Pbuh] forbade were the PRE-ISLAMIC, SATANIC CHARMS. Where in the Holy Quran or the Sunnah of the Prophet [Pbuh] is it forbidden to use QURANI TAWEEZ? I note in the article "Charms and Amulets, Dr Bilal Philips and Dr al-Jibaly disapprove of Qurani Taweez but this is their opinion and not a primary source. I realise that the Prophet's [Pbuh] practice was to read the Quran and those who believe in Taweez also read the Holy Quran for the purposes of curing and remedy of various ills. But where is the specific proof of Qurani Taweez [not pagan, satanic amulets] being forbidden? Can you provide me with the Surah and Verse of the Holy Quran, or the isnad and compiler in the case of Hadith? If I were you, I wouldn't bother trying. You won't find any. The Quran is the Word of Allah, and the Word of Allah would never testify against itself!

You said that the Prophet (peace be upon him) forbade Pre-Islamic Satanic Charms... where does it say this? Here is the narration again:

It was narrated from 'Uqbah ibn 'Aamir al-Juhani that a group came to the Messenger of Allaah (peace and blessings of Allaah be upon him) [to swear their allegiance (bay'ah) to him]. He accepted the bay'ah of nine of them but not of one of them. They said, "O Messenger of Allaah, you accepted the bay'ah of nine but not of this one." He said, "He is wearing an amulet." The man put his hand (in his shirt) and took it off, then he (the Prophet (peace be upon him)) accepted his bay'ah. He said, 'Whoever wears an amulet has committed shirk.'

[Narrated by Ahmad, Number 16,969; Classed as Saheeh (authentic) by Sheikh al – Albaanee in 'al-Silsilah al-Saheehah', Number 492; as quoted in <http://www.islam-qa.com/en/ref/10543>]

There is no distinction been made between the different kinds of amulets. It is you who did so, thus the argument is not strong.

The proof of this is the following:

It was narrated from Zaynab the wife of ‘Abd-Allaah ibn Mas’ood (May Allaah be pleased with him) from ‘Abd-Allaah that he said: “I heard the Messenger of Allaah (peace be upon him) say, ‘Spells (ruqyah), amulets and love-charms are shirk.’ I said, “Why do you say this? By Allaah, my eye was weeping with a discharge and I kept going to So and so, the Jew, who did a spell for me. When he did the spell, it calmed down.” ‘Abd-Allaah said: “That was just the work of the Shaytaan who was picking it with his hand, and when (the Jew) uttered the spell, he stopped. All you needed to do was to say as the Messenger of Allaah (peace be upon him) used to say:

“‘Idhhabil-ba’s Rabban-naas wa’shfi, a’nt ash-Shaafee, laa shifaa’a illaa shifaa’uka, shifaa’an laa yughaadiruhu saqamaa.”

(Remove the suffering, O’ Lord of mankind, and heal it perfectly, as You are the true healer. There is no cure except Your cure, a cure which is not followed by sickness)”

[Sunan Aboo Dawood, Number 3883; Sunan Ibn Maajah, Number 3530; Classed as Saheeh (authentic) by Sheikh al – Albaanee in ‘al-Silsilat al-Saheehah’, Number 331 and 2972; as quoted in <http://www.islam-qa.com/en/ref/10543>]

Here, 'Abdullaah ibn Mas'ood (may Allaah be pleased with him) did not ask her to write it down and tie it on her neck, hand, ankle, etc, he said to recite the Ruqyah.

Thus, no one is saying we shouldnt use Qur'aanic ayats say a form of curing, but we do it in the way reported in the Sunnah. IF amulets and so forth were allowed, then we would have found the best generation (Salaf) doing so, but we dont. And if we are not follow the Best generations, then who are we following?

Plus, when we make such amulets, we rely to much on the amulet itself, rather thn understanding that the help is from Allaah alone. This is the biggest problem with common folk.

and as a final evidence:

Narrated an-Nu‘maan ibn Basheer (May Allaah be pleased with him): The Prophet (peace be upon him) said, “When the last two verses of Soorah al-Baqarah are read in a home for three consecutive nights, the devil will not come near it.” [Sunan at-Tirmitheeh and Ibn Hibban and Authenticated by Sheikh al-Albaanee in Saheeh Sunan at-Tirmitheeh, vol. 3,

p. 4, no. 2311; as quoted in 'Three Shelters Course', Module 15, p. 8 – 9]

He (peace be upon him), did not say to print picture and put them on walls or wear amulets with these ayats in them. He specifically says READ. This the same with all other Duas.

As the hadeeth of 'Abdullaah ibn Mas'ood proves above, any benefit you think you have gained from such 'Taweez', is an illusion created by the jinn. This is similar to the illusion the jinn creates when it comes out of possessed people, when christian priests think they are removing it in Jesus's name. Why would the jinn do this? To make us think that our act of shirk, works (i.e. the jinn makes the priest think that he removed the Jinn in Jesus's name)

So i hope you understand our point.

Allaah says in the Qur'aan: "And of mankind are some who take (for worship) others besides Allâh as rivals (to Allâh). They love them as they love Allâh. But those who believe, love Allâh more (than anything else). If only, those who do wrong could see, when they will see the torment, that all power belongs to Allâh and that Allâh is Severe in punishment." (Al-Baqarah 2:165)

If you honestly believe that it is Allaah that helps us, why do we need these Taweez?.....

and Allaah knows best

What you believe is on your own head. No-one can force you, nor can you force anyone else! Believing in Taweez is a matter of interpretation. You do what your heart tells you; no-one is stopping you. Similarly, those who believe in Quranic Taweez, if they listen to their own hearts, will not listen to you. So let each do his own deeds and be responsible for them. Therefore, I will continue to offer Quranic Taweez on my Sites for those who wish to use the Holy Quran [the Word of Allah Most High] for healing and spiritual welfare.

I do not have time to indulge in forums (and it does seem to be working properly in my country). Please post your evidence if you have any and please provide references from the books as people can easily 'alter' translations for their own desires.

I have no interest in what so and so sheikh has said, unless it has backing of narrations.

I have many other narrations i can send you, for eg, one thats shows how companions would boycott people who would, when told hadeeth of the prophet, follow their own views/desires (i.e. reject the hadeeth) [Refer to the Book of Sunnah, Ibn Maajah]

I've now heard from Ferrero UK ;Ltd [Tel: 01923 690300] and from the tone of Dorothy Fler, Consumer Relations Department, they are already aware that Nutella is not suitable for vegetarians and have no intention of doing anything about it [in my letter I asked if the firm would consider making Nutella halal]!

Sorry to have to give you this negative reply.

If you are in the UK, why not buy hazelnut spread from Tesco or Sainsbury, both of which are suitable for vegetarians?

Dear Dr Uzam

Thank you for replying so promptly! I have attached some files that will whet your appetite for the selection of products I will send you. I have included the Vegetarian/Vegan lists as well, since that is of significant importance. The products listed on the Islamic Seal seem to be a slightly broader range.

You will receive a package from me later this week - is there someone at the address you gave me to take in a daytime courier delivery. or is there somewhere safe it can be left?

I will include additional information about the products and our business for your interest. If you do not wish to add these products to a shop on your own websites, perhaps you will be kind enough to give a link to us. We will be setting up an Islamic Products page on our website this week.

I look forward very much to hearing from you again.

In my judgement, these are the meanings of the multiple dreams:

1. Snow represents punishments and worries [Ibn Sireen R.A. p. 27] but you can manage these difficulties because the snow did not overwhelm you in the dream.
2. Your friend whose father died is suffering a temporary psychological trauma.
3. Your other friend is having problems with her work – she is finding her University studies hard.
4. You have been having disagreements with your Mum but then ending them and being happy again.

5. You are loyal to your family and prefer to keep them happy; you prefer your family over the friend you like.
6. You have problems in life (dense rain).

Salam Dr. Umar,

Hope you are fine & in a good health.

- I dreamt two nights back, It has been raining & i was in my Pakistan's home.

there was also snowfall, and i was happy to see a snowfall, i took some of snow in my hand, it was very small & tiny pieces of snow.

one of my frnd's father has been died on friday, obviously my frnd and her family is very upset & sad.

- So I dreamt one night back:

I saw my frnd was very upset and she suicide & jumped from 7th floor of the building & died(in actual my flat is on 7th floor where i use to live now). I didnt see her after death, but saw a pool of blood on the groud.

and in the continouation i again saw the same scene, one of my university friend, she suicide and jumped from some other building, because she was very sad & disappointed. some teacher scold her. so she suicide!

then i woke up, as it seems bad dreams , so I pray for them & slept again.

- then I saw, i was going to some amusement park with my family.

i looked back to the sky & saw moon, & it was like broken into many tiny pieces & rejoin.

i saw this 3 times.

then I looked forward & entered in the park, where i saw my friend (the one i like). then I ignored him & moved.

- last night i saw a very very Heavy rainfall, i have never seen such a dense raining, it was very fast & like I cant see anything infront of me.

i saw this from my balcony.

Kindly tell me interpretations dream wise.

Wa laikum salam Y. Abdullah,

Yes, it's a good point you raise. It is stated in the Quran:

No vision can grasp Him, but His grasp is over all vision: He is above all comprehension, yet is acquainted with all things. [6:103]

No mere mortal has the mental capacity to comprehend Allah Most High in the conscious [waking life] or the sub-conscious [dreaming]. Our intellectual faculties are powerless in this regard. What you saw in your dream and what Ibn Sireen R.A. means is the representation of Allah – usually a Light. That is not Allah Himself – just a message of Allah! The pleasure of the vision of Allah will be the ultimate pleasure in Jannat, but it will only be possible because we will have been re-created in new forms after death – presumably forms which, in Eternal life, will have the faculties and capabilities to perceive Allah's Majestic form.

Salam,

You mentioned that Allah cannot be seen in dream. But I am quite positive that I have seen Allah (SWT) in my dream more than once. It is also mentioned in Imam Ibn Sireens work. I also see dreams and true dreams. If you think that I can be any of help to your work then please contact me at this email.

Salam, Rida

Congratulations on celebrating the night of 12 Rabiul Awal; to tell you the truth, I'm not aware of the significance of this auspicious night, nor do I have knowledge of Darood-E-Tanjeena. I'm impressed by your practical, specialist knowledge of our rituals!

There is no entry in Ibn Sirren's R.A. book for reading Darood Sharif or Tasliya. The nearest interpretation is:

Seeing the Prophet [S] in a dream FORETELLS SOMETHING GOOD. THE DREAMER WILL PERFORM GOOD ACTIONS. P. 13

Sweets – EVERYTHING EXTRACTED FROM HONEY OR SUGAR IS A SYMBOL OF WEALTH.

So, these dreams mean that you are religious and Allah will give you providence as a result of your righteousness. I'm very happy for you!

Thanks for your reply. Its true I saw Allah in the form of light. During those days when I was in Toronto, Canada I used to see bright lights in my dreams may be two or three times. I even saw something I think was Paradise. I saw Prophet Muhammed (PBUH) three times, Isa ibn Mariuam (PBUH) once smiling at me and I was directing him to some path or something. I really dont understand the meaning of these dreams. So I refer to some dream interpretation web sites like islamdreams.com and firdaous.com. It would be really helpful for me if someone could interpret these dreams for me. I believe you are trustworthy cause visited your web site and I think you are knowledgable in this field.

Your Mum wants to be accepted and loved more by her family. Is everyone looking after her needs?

Silver

To see silver in your dream, symbolizes the moon, intuition and the feminine aspects of yourself

Earrings

To dream that you or someone is wearing earrings, suggests that you need to listen more carefully and pay attention.

To see broken earrings in your dreams, suggests that you are being talked about.

To dream that you are buying earrings, represents your desire for acceptance and affection.

It seems like you are making preparations to achieve some goal in your life [training falcon], with the consent of your Dad [watching you in dream]. However, you are experiencing minor difficulties in realising these goals [falcon not coming back straightaway]. See:

Dreams can also be interpreted using psychological science, which is fine by Islam - after all, all knowledge is good. This is especially true if there are no equivalent, Islamic interpretations. We won't need interpretations of Christian symbols, so we can ignore them.

Asalaamualaikum,

Brother I think the website you are using for translating the dream (<http://islamedia.ws>) it is not run by Muslims I was going through the website and I felt that it may not be run by Muslims or it can be run by those who are just using other experiences not real ilm of translating the dreams, I didn't find the translation for mosque, Prophet Muhammad, and I found out translation for church and other things I don't remember now. I request you to go through the site thoroughly and check if its authentic. Thank you.

Yes, I've been v. busy. I paid a private company in Pakistan to distribute to respondents in their mailing list that I will send the Holy Quran Attachment and then, Masha'Allah, I got hundreds of requests!

Your dream is v. easy to interpret! The aeroplane in trouble represents giant problems in life! The eventual rescue means that these problems will be overcome, possibly with the help of those in authority [represented by attractive sea]. So pray to Allah for help at all times!

salam Dr.

i dreamt last nite...

i saw i was in aeroplane, it was passing over the sea, & suddenly i saw plane had some problem and everyone has to jump, so i jumped into sea (the sea was greenish blue, very clean & clear)...then someone helped me to get out of the sea, when i got out of it.

then i realize that plane was quite nearer to the land, so everyone could be out of sea & many peoples were coming out by swimming and all.

Then i saw my mother, she was coming out the sea, then my father & brother also.

i saw my sister she wasnt in the plane, she was sitting beside me.

so its like everyone was save from that.

kindly tell me interpretation

Regards,

Hina
